SPRING Workshops

Spring is the ideal time for students to begin the college essay process. Students who go through our workshops build strong foundations, explore meaningful topics, and enter summer ready to draft with confidence. Below is a glimpse into our variety of offerings:

Virtual Student Workshops

- Our interactive virtual workshops guide students through key parts of the college essay. Virtual sessions are ideal for large groups and schools/organizations that need flexibility in scheduling,

In Person Student Workshops

- Our in-person workshops provide a hands-on environment where students receive guided instruction. Multi-day Boot Camps allow for dedicated writing time. Students will leave with stronger ideas, clearer direction, and momentum to continue drafting and revising.
